

Dear Birthmother,

First and foremost, we want to thank you for considering the two of us for the adoption of your child, as well as taking time to look through our portfolio. We applaud you for your strength and courage in making what we can only imagine must have been a difficult decision for you and your family to make.

We are Juan and Michelle and from the day that we met, we knew that we wanted to be parents. We have known each other for almost seven years now and are going on four years being married. We were upset and saddened at the same time, when we realized that due to medical reasons, we would not be able to have a biological child of our own. However, we always felt strongly in our hearts that we wanted to be parents and be able to share our love with a little one. Once we learned more about the adoption process, we fully embraced the idea and ran with it, and here we are today.

Initially, like anything else, there are a bunch of questions and uncertainty with anything new and/or different. However, deep down we knew that when the day were to come where we would be able to hold a little one in our arms and call him, or her, our child, that all of the questions and uncertainty would not matter. The fact that adoption runs in our families, and the fact that our friends and family have been so open, receptive and supportive of our decision, that alone has made this process so much easier, and enjoyable as well.

We thank you once again for taking the time to read and look through our portfolio as we introduce ourselves to you and show you a glimpse of who we are. Rest assured that if we are blessed and lucky enough to be chosen as your child's adoptive parents, we will treat the child with nothing but love from the two of us, as well as a fairly large, extended family that is anxiously waiting for a new addition.

Juan and Michelle
