

Hello!

Thank you for considering all the options available to you and your baby. We can only imagine that deciding on a home for your baby is one of the hardest decisions you'll ever have to make, and we want you to know that we respect you so much for your love and courage.

We have always wanted to be parents and are so excited to be adopting. We met in college on a Catholic student retreat. Tom was on the retreat team and inspired Andrea with his story of finding forgiveness and worth in Jesus. Andrea was rediscovering her faith at the time. Little did she know that seeking Jesus would also lead her to her husband!

Our wedding day in 2011 was a joy-filled, blessed day, surrounded by the love of our friends and family. Best party we've ever been to. Our marriage stands as a solid foundation of love and support that we are so grateful for.

We're excited to adopt because we have both always wanted to be parents! Family is so important to us, and we look forward to welcoming a baby into the loving environment we've been preparing. We have suffered from infertility throughout our marriage, but the struggle has deepened our longing for a child who will be incredibly precious to us.

We can't wait to get to know the child we'll adopt, with all their unique gifts and personality, and to help them grow and discover the world. We both love learning and are excited to be parents in daily experiences, big adventures, and the trials and victories of life.

The child we adopt will be loved so much! Not only by us, but also by a large community of extended family and friends. Please know that no matter what you choose, we wish you and your child all the very best. We are honored that you are taking the time to get to know us. If you're open to it, we look forward to meeting you.

Love,
Tom and Andrea
