

CATHOLIC CHARITIES DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

As a member organization of the National Conference of Catholic Charities, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee abides by a code of ethics that recognizes and respects confidentiality as a living principle within the agency. Therefore, established policies and procedures emphasize the protection of the privacy of relationships established with clients, donors and other key stakeholders. To support Catholic Charities' donors' privacy rights, personal information related to donors will not be sold nor commercially exchanged.

Adopted by Catholic Charities Board of Trustees, February 2008
